prior worksite to next worksite, and optional spot-to-spot transportation provided at no cost to the worker.

Optional shared housing ($400/month) is provided. The employer will pay the cost of housing to the extent such costs would reduce the pay below the offered wage rate for the areas of intended employment, but is otherwise available for wage credit and/or deduction, or any lesser amount to the extent not prohibited by law.

Local convenience travel ($25/week) is available for wage credit and/or deduction, or any lesser amount to the maximum extent not prohibited by law.

Wages calculated by single workweek, paid weekly. Employer will make all deductions from the worker's paycheck as required by law. Bonus pay at employer's discretion.

If not paid in advance by employer or his agent, H-2B workers reimbursed via paycheck in the 1st workweek for all visa, visa processing, border crossing, and other related fees, but not for passport expenses or other charges primarily for the benefit of the worker.

If required by valid and controlling law, necessary, reasonable, the most economical, and authorized, then transportation, meals, and lodging to 1st worksite paid and arranged by employer, and return transportation provided if the worker completes the employment or is dismissed early. In country travel reimbursed no later than after worker completes 50% of the season and presents documentation. Daily subsistence will be provided at a rate of $14.00 per day during travel to a maximum of $59 per day with receipts.

Reimbursement of travel or visa expenses is available for wage credit and/or deduction, or any lesser amount to the maximum extent not prohibited by law.

Necessary tools, supplies, equipment, and uniform provided at no charge.

This job order, including its wage and working terms and conditions, is contingent upon prevailing U.S. immigration law, including Department of Labor and Department of Homeland Security regulations. If any such prevailing law is rescinded, superseded, vacated, or substantially modified, then the parties will re-negotiate in good faith any affected term.
